Reviews - Beyond Sensory Experience

Beyond Sensory Experience `Urmula` Old Europa Cafe cd 2003

This is by far the weakest stuff from BSE in my opinion. I think it's just a matter of taste, because the album is simply too calm for me - for someone else it might be good because of that. Tracks like `Arbogast`, `Filth Discipline` or `Curtains` are very good, but the rest... Why the hell there are no rhythmic parts here like the `Carnival of the Chained` on the previous album? It would diversify the album and make it not lulling me to sleep all the time. Yes, we have some rhythmic parts on tracks `28.9.11.9` or `Urmula` but they are too quiet. The previous album - `Tortuna` - is far more interesting!

Tracklist: // A New Kind of Science / Arbogast / The Two-Trace Problem / 28.9.11.9 / Celestial Disharmonies / Filth Discipline / Urmula / Curtains //
